PRAY FOR VOCATIONS— This week I spoke to David Green at St. Vincent Seminary where he had just completed the seminary retreat. He asked to be remembered to everyone at St. Januarius and to thank you again for your warm welcome this past summer. David's parish experience no doubt contributed to what he described as a great first semester at St. Vincent's. Also this past week the prayer cards for vocations came featuring David arriving at St. Januarius compliments of the efforts of Mr Bill Stezoski and his associates. Many thanks to Bill for coordinating this project. During Benedictions during Lent I will lead those participating in prayer for David and all the seminarians of the Diocese Of Pittsburgh. Our prayer time together will be an opportunity to pray for priestly vocations and for the faithful living out of all vocations in the Church. Thank You, Msgr. Ogradowski

	“The priesthood of the baptized is lived at home, within the family, as parents and children, as single women and men, old and young, rich and poor, through career and volunteer service, in the marketplace and public square, through society’s recreational practices, in science and education, politics and law—it is here the lay faithful are first called to live their priesthood.”
