PARISH SHARE 2013 ASSESMENT		30,084.00

Dear Saint Januarius Parishioners,

For over a week the Catholic Church has been a headline in the news on a daily basis: Pope Benedict XVI will end his pontificate on Thursday, February 28; then, the conclave, the meeting of cardinals to elect a successor to Pope Benedict, will take place, with all the accompanying speculations and finally a new pope will step out onto the balcony of Saint Peter's Basilica, and the media will search out every last biographical detail of the 266th occupant of the papal office.

Yes, this is big news and I follow it every day. But if the news people were to call me and ask me what is the big Church news every day, I would answer; That in difficult financial times the parishioners of Saint Januarius Church not only support the ministry of our parish but also that of our Diocese and with great generosity!!!! Thank you, brothers and sisters in the Lord, for successfully concluding one Parish Share and beginning another. Your witness of faith is the daily good news of the Gospel.

Msgn. William M. Opatowski

: I wonder if the reason tension exists in some circles results from the :
: misconception that the ordained have more power or are seen as :
: more holy. This simply is not the case nor should it be. The concept :
: of "collaboration," when understood correctly, brings the non- :
: ordained and the ordained into such an integral relationship that :
: both see how ministry in the life of the Church requires the use of :
: everyone's gifts. Pope John Paul II wrote in his document on priest- :
: ly formation: "The ministerial priesthood does not of itself signify a :
: greater degree of holiness with regard to the common priesthood of :
: the faithful; through it, Christ gives to priests, in the Spirit, a partic- :
: ular gift so that they can help the People of God to exercise faithful- :
: ly and fully the common priesthood which it has received" (Pastores :
