Whenever we celebrate the Eucharist, what we do is no less significant than what the apostles encountered with Jesus at the Last Supper. We are to be enthralled with the message that God wants to share with us through the word of the Scriptures. We have the incomparable experience of receiving the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, the Sacred Body and Blood of Christ. And finally, within the Eucharist, we are, in fact, charged to become servants of one another, just as Jesus charged the early apostles to be servants, signified by His washing of their feet."
